WHEN THE TRAIL OF A TEAR IS SOFTENED WITH SMILES

O. Henry's hand of genius blazed many such trails, lighting each with the warmth of human understanding, as he created from a whimsical mind the romances, the comedies and the tragedies of life. These great classics will be published in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE. One complete short story a day, 280 in all, will be available to the readers of The TRIBUNE.

Never has a newspaper offered such a treat to its constituency anywhere. O. Henry built no bridges, he reared no domes, but from a vision of truth he spun the threads of humor and pathos that lifted him to the heights as the master of short-story writing. Brilliant in conception, sure in execution, fertile in invention, he is without a peer. With the skill of De Maupassant and a humor that De Maupassant never dreamed of, he takes first place not only over Poe in America, but over all the writers of tales throughout the world. There is poignancy in his pathos, desolation in his tragedy, warmth in his romance, spontaneity in his humor, making possible the mingling of amusement with tears. Every day for weeks to come—think what that means to you! It means that you who read The TRIBUNE are getting the utmost, that you are meeting the master each evening of the week and each Sunday morning! Watch The TRIBUNE for announcement of the start of the great series.

Mrs. Tabor Appears for Daughter's Death

PAW PATY, Mich., April 2.—White faced and nervous, Mrs. Sarah Tabor today sat in a justice court and listened to witnesses describe how her daughter, Maude Virgo, met her death three years ago. The mother is charged with manslaughter in connection with her daughter's death, due to a criminal operation.

Wife Shuns Home, Man's Suit Claims

Because, he alleges, his wife wanted to go to theaters, cafes and dances every night, and because she was dissatisfied with the home and automobile and "refined associations" with which he provided her, Albert Thomas Church, mining engineer, residing at 470 Chetwood avenue, this morning filed suit for divorce from Mrs. Alice H. Church.

The complaint is filed for Church by Attorneys Harrison S. Robinson and Harry L. Price. It sets forth that the couple was married in Detroit in December, 1918, and separated in February, 1920. Twice during their married life his wife left him, he says, once going to Pueblo, Colo., and the second time to Los Angeles. Both times he neglected his business in order to go and entreat her to return, he says. There are 300 witnesses on the globe, according to late estimates.

SAN DIEGO CHOSEN HEAD OF ROTARIANS

Leslie Everts of San Diego was elected new district governor of the twenty-third district of Rotary clubs here at the convention which closed last night with a big dinner and dance for the visiting delegates given at the Hotel Auditorium by the Oakland club. Everts won over Charles B. Christy of Phoenix, Ariz., who then withdrew to make it unanimous district governor. Everts will preside over Rotary in Oregon, California, Arizona and the Hawaiian Islands for the ensuing year.

Wives of Rotarians were given a new kind of thrill when they were treated to airplane rides at Durant field through the courtesy of R. C. (Chief) Durant. Four planes were kept busy carrying the women aloft and the feminine contingent was enthusiastic over the science of aerial navigation as judged by their first glimpse of it.

BALE ATTENDED BY 1500. At the Hotel El Comodoro, where more than 1500 delegates, 1000 toy airplanes donated for the occasion were presented to the visitors. The planes were exact duplicates of the regular kind of craft. During the banquet the different clubs provided entertainment. The Oakland club quartet with its club songs, Long Beach's municipal band, Los Angeles with her parade and songs, Sacramento with a pantomime, "The Heart of California," San Jose high school cadet band, W. S. Lunsford of Reno in song productions, Fresno's pantomime and parades and songs by 350 San Francisco delegates enlivened the dinner hour.

At the conclusion of the banquet the guests retired to the balconies while the floor was cleared for dancing. The afternoon session started with community singing led by Lowell Redfield of Berkeley, an address by Rabbi Edgar Magnin of Los Angeles on "Underlying Prosperity," the Boy's talk on "Boys' Work," by Redmond C. Staats of Berkeley, David J. Reese of Ventura and Phil Swaffield of Long Beach.

MANY ARE SPEAKERS. Others who spoke were Judge F. L. Oddie, former governor of Nevada; Samuel P. Johnson, San Francisco; James W. Briscoe, Santa Barbara; Judge William H. Langdon, San Francisco, presiding justice, District Court of Appeals, first district division No. 2; Fontaine Johnson of Sacramento and George Hecke of Sacramento.

Judge Langdon, speaking on "The Jury System," declared that women are much more attentive to evidence, painstaking and bring better judgment into jury. He advocated examination of women by judges, who can cut time of jury examination from several hours to fifteen minutes, shorter jury service term and instructions by judge to jury in plain English, omitting legal verbiage.

Probation Granted to Girl Bandit

Promising to make restitution at the rate of $25 a month to those whom she had assisted Bert Garret in robbing, Miss Irene Johnson, who assisted in the hold-up of Virgil Reed, Richmond photographer, and was convicted by a jury of the theft of clothes from the home of Mrs. Manuel Brown in Alameda, was today granted ten years' probation by Judge Lincoln S. Church.

The girl was acquitted of the hold-up charge in Richmond, when Bert Garret, her companion took all the blame and testified that Miss Johnson had only assisted him on a date to prove that she was not "yellow."

Sometime later the girl was arrested in Oakland when Mrs. Brown saw her in a restaurant wearing clothes which had been stolen from her home. It developed that Bert Garret had made the acquaintance of Mrs. Brown and her husband at a dance and had once taken them home. The girl denied participation in this burglary, but was convicted. While held in the county jail and during her trial, Miss Johnson was the recipient of attention from Frank MacLafferty, whom she had met when he was a jailer at Richmond. She complained to the police and he was arrested after throwing pebbles at her cell window.

FRENCH WOULD AID MARRIAGE BY SPINSTER TAX

PARIS, April 2.—The French government has put a premium upon marriage by imposing a 10 per cent tax upon bachelors and spinsters. Spirited discussions were aroused by the provision of the measure taxing women as well as men. Members of the chamber of deputies opposed this clause on the ground that the bachelors were really responsible for the unmarried condition of the women.

CITIES SHOW INCREASE. WASHINGTON, April 2.—Population statistics announced by the Census Bureau included: Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 22,828, an increase of 6728, or 10 per cent over 1910; Waterloo, Iowa, 36,230, increase 5537, or 18.7 per cent; Murphysboro, Ill., 10,411, increase 2225, or 22.1 per cent; Long Branch, N. J., 12,521, increase 223, or 1.7 per cent.

JAPAN JOINS CALIFORNIA'S IN HARMONY

By HENRY W. KINNEY, United Press Correspondent. TOKYO, March 25 (Delayed).—Following an important series of conferences that continued for eight days, during which prominent Japanese officials and citizens discussed leading issues with the Alexander party from California, the following program of cooperation was announced:

1. Cooperation of Japanese and American capital to obtain better cable service by the laying of another cable between the Orient and America.
  2. An exchange of professors between educational institutions of Japan and the United States.
  3. Establishment of a trade arbitration agency.
  4. An attempt to be made to solve Japanese land ownership and immigration problems as they affect the United States.
- The conference is understood to have resulted in a better understanding of the Japanese government's wish to hold passports from picture brides. The American delegation is convinced that the Japanese sincerely wish to solve troublesome problems affecting the Japanese in America.
- The party of Americans is headed by Wallace M. Alexander of San Francisco, president of the Alexander & Baldwin shipping and commission firm. Other members of the party are:

PIERCE ARROW

"The First Fifty"

TRUCK NO. 40. Truck No. 40 has the distinction of being one of the two of the first fifty Pierce-Arrow trucks not now in existence. It was this truck which, after five years of remarkable performance, was destroyed in a fire, operating at the mines of the American Graphite Company, near Ticonderoga, N. Y. This truck never failed to run, despite conditions that would spell ruin for a weaker make. It covered 20 miles a day, working day and night, hauling coal from railroad sidings to the mine. The truck carried the truck on the steep grade for four and one-half miles. Low gear was used constantly. But few days were lost because of mechanical trouble. During its five years of service it never was overhauled, but for several months of each year it was idle when the mines were shut down because of weather conditions. The graphite company now owns two five-ton and one two-ton Pierce-Arrow trucks.

First Fifty Booklet can be had on application. PIERCE-ARROW PACIFIC SALES COMPANY, Inc. BERTON K. BARNER, Manager, Webster at 224 Street, Oakland, Cal.

THIRTEEN TO SPLIT VOTE IN MICHIGAN

By HAROLD D. JACOBS,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Campaign observers are predicting that Michigan will become a political cemetery Monday. Thirteen candidates for the presidential nomination—seven Republicans, five Democrats and one Socialist—have entered in the preferential primaries there. The one polling a plurality in each party will get all that state's thirty delegates to his national convention.

While it is still comparatively early in the pre-convention campaign, Michigan is regarded as one of the "pivotal" states this year, so far as the nominations are concerned.

The thirteen candidates are: Republicans—Senator Miles Poin-dexter, Senator Hiram W. Johnson, General John J. Pershing, Major General Leonard Wood, Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, Herbert Hoover and William G. Simpson of Detroit.

Democrats—Governor Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey, William J. Bryan, William G. McAdoo, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer and Herbert Hoover.

Socialist—Eugene V. Debs.

Michigan is normally Republican. In 1916 it gave Charles E. Hughes 337,952 votes; President Wilson, 233,993, and Allan Benson, Socialist, 16,812.

At least two of the Republican candidates are expected to "cash in" on Roosevelt sentiment—Wood and Johnson—both of whom were personal friends of E. R. and are generally regarded as "Progressives." Hoover backers believe he will inherit a large part of the liberal element that supported Roosevelt and Wilson.

The fact that Hoover is on both tickets is expected to present an interesting situation. This is the first time it has been put to the test politically since his telegram to the San Francisco Hoover Club, in which he aligned himself with the Republicans.

NAME OF PRESIDENT WITHDRAWN IN RACE

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—The name of President Wilson, which had been entered by petition in the Georgia presidential preferential primary, has been withdrawn by action of a number of signers of the petition.

The time limit for entries expired yesterday at noon and official announcement of the candidates who had been certified revealed that President Wilson was not among them.

Attorney-General Palmer, Thos. E. Watson, former candidate for president on the Populist ticket, and Senator Hoke Smith were the only candidates whose names will appear on the ballots.

TO ENTERTAIN NEWSBOYS.
Every Saturday night this month the newsboys of various papers will be entertained at the Y. M. C. A. The program will include eats, movies, fun in the gymnasium, sing-songs, vaudeville stunts and swimming. Experts in boys' wants are arranging an evening's entertainment that will leave a boy in the state in which he is rarely found—perfectly satisfied.

When the armistice was signed.

Political Field.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., April 2.—Unofficial returns from fifty-four of the sixty-four counties in the state on the general primary election of March 23 for Republican presidential endorsement, announced by the secretary of state at Pierre, show:

Wood, 23,202; Lowden, 22,543; Johnson, 22,422.

General Wood received the majority endorsement for presidential preference at the state convention held December 2 last, while Governor Lowden was the minority choice and Senator Johnson filed as an independent candidate.

No figures on the Democratic vote were announced.

Under the Richards primary law of this state the candidate receiving the plurality of votes cast gets the support of South Dakota's ten delegates to the national convention of his party.

WISCONSIN G. O. P.
DELEGATION SPLIT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 2.—Two sets of Republican candidates for delegates to the national convention will be voted on in the Wisconsin primaries next Tuesday. Among the Democrats there is no contest. One list of Republican candidates is known as the Governor's list, headed by Governor Charles D. Follett, the other as the La Follette slate. The primaries provide for no expression of presidential preference by the voters.

MISSISSIPPI G. O. P.
TO VOTE FOR WOOD

JACKSON, Miss., April 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Eighty-eight delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention, each with one-half a vote, the Republican state convention instructed these to vote as a unit for Major General Leonard Wood. The delegates included several negroes.

GOVERNOR LOWDEN FILES IN OREGON

SALEM, Ore., April 2.—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois has filed with the secretary of state his declaration of candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination of Oregon. Joseph E. Dunne, Oregon campaign manager for Lowden, said it was also the governor's platform and argument for the campaign. Lowden is the second presidential candidate to file in Oregon. Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California filed his declaration of candidacy several weeks ago.

DEMOCRATS TO PLAN CONVENTION DETAILS

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Plans for the Democratic national convention in San Francisco will be discussed at a meeting of the committee on arrangements April 20, in Chicago. Chairman Cummings of the national committee announced that subcommittees recently appointed to deal with specific convention matters would make their reports at that time to the full committee.

ORGANIZED LABOR SUPPORTS JOHNSON

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Organizer labor of California went on record yesterday in favor of Hiram W. Johnson as labor's choice for the Republican nomination for president.

The occasion was a conference of delegates representing the State Federation of Labor, the San Francisco Labor Council and the San Francisco Building Trades Council. Each body was represented by ten delegates.

The conference first took up the question as to whether or not labor should organize a separate political party or adopt the plan suggested by the American Federation of Labor, of rewarding its friends. The conference resolved against the formation of a labor party and in favor of the American Federation of Labor plan to reward its friends and punish its enemies. After deciding to reward its friends, the conference then took up the claims of candidates, and after examining their records picked Hiram Johnson as labor's true friend.

A few of the delegates representing the Labor Council did not vote because they were doubtful about their authority to act for the council, but the delegates representing the San Francisco Building Trades Council and the State Federation of Labor, representing all of the councils throughout the state, were definitely authorized to act and voted unanimously for the resolution declaring Senator Johnson the first choice as a true friend of labor.

REGISTRATION NOW HEAVY OVER STATE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Registration in San Francisco and in various centers throughout the State gave clear indication of the public conviction upon the issues pending and candidates in the public eye. Figures obtained at the office of Chairman Ray Benjamin were for the period closing with March 17, the latest available. By that time Republican registrations were 104,539, as compared with Democratic registrations numbering 31,740, a total of 136,279. Compared with these figures the registration for a like period in 1916 were: Republicans, 35,315; Democrats, 12,145, a total of 47,460. For 1918 the total registration for general election, all primaries, was: Republican, 102,293; Democratic, 49,458, or a total of 151,751, showing that in the present referendum almost as many voters have registered within the seventy-seven days elapsed to March 17 as registered for the entire campaign two years ago. Another significant thing: In 1919 4349 Socialists registered in San Francisco, while in 1920 only 2701 have registered so far, and 3599 "Progressive" registrations were made in 1919, compared with 1245 in 1920.

ference made an oral statement lamenting the fact that Hoover had been attracted into making his declaration of Republican affiliation, but asserting that they still are for him.

Sidney M. Van Wyck Jr. was chosen as the spokesman for the Democrats, surrounded by opposition in the Republican party, Hoover can't even carry California, Van Wyck predicted.

"Hoover could almost have the Democratic support in California on a platter," said Van Wyck, "but he can't beat Hiram W. Johnson in the Republican primaries, and his defeat in his home state will be fatal. The Republicans don't want him for the nominee in any part of the country, and he won't get the Republican nomination."

DRY WILL SUPPORT
WALLACE CANDIDACY.

FRESNO, April 2.—The senatorial candidacy of A. J. Wallace of Pasadena, former lieutenant governor under Johnson, received the endorsement of dry leaders of the entire state at an all-day conference held here by the members of the restricted committee which in 1918 handled the statewide prohibition amendment ratification campaign.

Resolutions were adopted, addressed to the dry voters, to support the Harris bill, which comes before the electorate this fall as a referendum measure.

HOOVER ORGANIZATION FORMED AT MARTINEZ.

MARTINEZ, April 2.—A Hoover-for-President club was organized here at a meeting addressed by Thomas H. Reed, political science instructor of the University of California. A. H. Burnett, a classmate of Hoover, was elected president; Mrs. Frank Smith, vice-president; W. A. Hugg, secretary, and R. R. Arnold, treasurer. The meeting was attended by about sixty persons.

ENTRY OF HOOVER
PITZLES MICHIGAN

DETROIT, April 2.—The Michigan primary campaign was "up in the air" today.

The last-minute entry of Herbert Hoover for the Republican nomination made predictions of Monday's vote impossible, politicians here agreed today.

Senator Borah, campaigning for Senator Hiram Johnson, was the only speaker for any of the candidates to make a direct reference to the Hoover boom in a speech.

"Hoover, if he had come in earlier, might have been as popular as Roosevelt," said Borah.

HOOVER DELEGATE TO FAVOR PALMER

MANCHESTER, N. H., April 2.—Gordon Woodbury, one of three pledged Hoover delegates to the Democratic convention from this state, has decided to support Attorney General Palmer, according to word received here today.

"Hoover seems to me now unfit for the honor of the Democratic nomination. I favor Palmer," Woodbury declared.

GIRL BURGLAR; SHE ESCAPES

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—R. D. Cellars saw a stranger emerging from a nearby backdoor early today. The stranger carried a suitcase. Cellars thought he was a burglar, went in the house, got a revolver, and stepped out to halt the man.

As he arrived on the scene, a pretty red-haired young woman came tripping out, also carrying a suitcase.

"What are you doing?" asked Cellars.

"Eloping," said the young woman. "The lady who lives there let us pass through to evade my father, who wants me to marry a wealthy old man I don't love." She wept.

Cellars wished her luck and let her pass.

A few minutes later his neighbor

TENANT CLAIMS LANDLORD STOLE; GETS WARRANT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The local rent war took a new turn today when P. Tucker, former tenant in a Hugo street apartment house, secured a warrant charging D. D. Dayles, proprietor of the place, with grand larceny.

Dayles is charged with having seized a phonograph and sewing machine belonging to Tucker, on the ground that the tenant refused to pay a charge of $9.40 for cleaning the apartment after he vacated. The warrant was issued by Police Judge Owens.

UNITED POLICY
GIVEN VOTE OF APPROVAL

ROME, April 1 (delayed)—A resolution expressing confidence in the Italian government headed by Premier Mussolini was adopted by the Senate today by a vote of 107 to 11. Before the vote was taken the premier made a speech declaring that Italy is anxious to enter into negotiations with Yugoslavia at once for a settlement of the Adriatic dispute.

"Russia must be rehabilitated and we must place Germany in a position to produce in order to maintain the equilibrium of Europe," said the premier. "If the ex-laiser was responsible for the war the German people have already paid their share for the crime. The Italian policy will be to appeal to all European forces to help. There can be no complete restoration of Europe without combined effort."

Pigeons Rehearse Flight for Easter

The second trial flight was made today by the 500 homing pigeons that will be released at the close of the Easter services on the hill back of Oakland. The birds were released by a troop of Boy Scouts.

Peace Came High, Britishers Declare

LONDON, March 28.—Charges that the government had indulged in recklessness and extravagance at the peace conference in Paris have been made in connection with its bill of 1503,383 for the expenses of the British delegation. One member of the House independently declared that it would have been better for the British delegates to have gone to bed to think over the peace conference instead of indulging in champagne and dances.

Women Plan Demands for New Status

By EDNA B. KINARD.

More than 12,000,000 women are engaged in gainful pursuits in the United States, according to the latest industrial authorities. Of this vast number, two-thirds are between the ages of 16 and 31 years, statistics declare. It is not surprising, then, that from the ranks of the young women themselves there should come a demand to participate in a movement to establish standards which shall be accepted north as well as south, east as well as west. These standards will be discussed and framed at the national convention of the Young Women's Christian Association, which meets in Cleveland, O., next month, and which will be attended by Miss Alice Brookman, secretary of the Oakland association.

Miss Constance McCorkle, industrial secretary under the national board of the local association this week and to a group gathered at luncheon outlined the report which would be presented to that body for action. Its proposals were briefly adopted last fall at a conference of sixty-five industrial representatives gathered in Washington, D. C., from associations all over the country.

The recommendations will incorporate the standard of an eight-hour day, the prohibition of night work and a one-day rest in seven for women. A minimum wage based on living conditions in the locality; economic and political equality of women with men; safeguards to health and life; and abolition of child labor will be suggested for adoption in the general illustrated talk on "The Beauty and Romance of Scotland."

Algonquin. The right of employers and employees to organize and the right of collective bargaining by groups of women workers will be offered for approval. Inasmuch as the Young Women's Christian Association claims the largest group of representatives working among women in industry, the findings and report of the national committee and its final disposition by the general body is being watched with deep interest. California laws already embody legislation of the recommendations, while legislation and public opinion are leaning toward many others. However, there is discussion plenty which might be afforded by the interesting document even among the industrial workers themselves.

TRAVELERS' AID ASKS FUNDS FOR ITS WORK

Whether Travelers' Aid in the East-bay cities will be permitted to become the efficient organization that it should be depends upon the generosity of the public in making up the $25 a month which is necessary to its maintenance. Renewed efforts will be put forward by the executive board of the county, of which E. C. Lyon is chairman, to assure the increased budget. Two aids are on duty at Sixteenth street station, the mole and the Western Pacific. This number should be increased to three to meet the problems which traveling girls and women have in entering or leaving the city, the authorities agree. An emergency fund is necessary. The state society bears the burden of the overhead expenses in the offices in the ferry building and a social worker covers both San Francisco and the East-bay cities in her duties. Thirty-one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one people of all nationalities were received during 1918. Last year's record was even larger. Wallace M. Alexander is president of the state society.

For the benefit of the work in Alameda county Norman H. Nesbitt will give on Monday night in the Standard school auditorium of Piedmont an illustrated talk on "The Beauty and Romance of Scotland."

TOWN AND GOWN ELECTORS MEANS Election of directors and members to the admission committee by Town and Gown members is scheduled for Monday, April 15. The following ticket is offered: For directors, Mrs. Nathaniel Gardner, Mrs. A. O. Leuchner, Mrs. C. W. Wilkinson, Mrs. Frank Woodward, for admissions committee, Miss Winifred Bangs, Miss Marietta Edwards, Mrs. Warren McKibben, Mrs. G. M. Stratton, Mrs. Perry Tompkins. "War Work in Washington" with Henry R. Hatfield the speaker is the program for Monday. The day's committee includes Mrs. Harry Frederick Jackson, Mrs. Henry R. Hatfield, Mrs. S. B. McLennan, Mrs. Sarah Webb, Mrs. Jo S. Mills, Mrs. Herbert G. Fontaine.

NEW CENTURY CLUB ELECTIONS COMMITTEE

The Oakland New Century Club is holding its election of a nominating committee this afternoon. Overtures have been made by the federated committee service to take over the picturesque Oakland clubhouse. Should the project carry it will become a social center in one of the most cosmopolitan districts in the city. The International Institute, which inaugurated its work under the roof of the club, has moved its headquarters to Ninth and Wood streets.

Honolulu Showing Big Building Gain

HONOLULU, T. H., March 23.—(By Mail).—During the year 1919 there were 792 dwellings and 112 business structures put up in Honolulu at a cost of $4,410,016, according to the building inspector's figures just published.

Navy Abandons Hope of Raising H-1 Hulk

SAN DIEGO, April 2.—That the navy department has abandoned the ill-fated submarine H-1 as a loss was learned here yesterday when the naval tug Sonoma, which was sent to leave Magdalena bay, arrived in port this afternoon. The Sonoma brought word that the battered hulk of the submarine is lying in nine fathoms of water, about 250 yards off shore, and is now little better than a mass of junk. Hope of finding the bodies of Lieutenant Commander James Field Webb, commander of the H-1, and of Seaman Joseph Kauffman, also has been given up.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisided coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

LUMBER WORKERS DISPUTE SETTLED

With the exception of a few mills in the interior part of the state, California lumber operators have adjusted their differences with the union mill workers who went on an individual strike to enforce a raise in pay from $7.50 to $8 a day this week.

The mill workers, who have not received the sanction of the Building Trades Council for the strike, because of the council's recently signed contract for a $7.50 wage scale for one year, closed up three of the largest mills in the San Jose district, the Chase mill, Santa Clara mills and the Pacific Manufacturing plant. The California mills, the biggest in the affected area, has settled with the men.

In San Francisco and Oakland several plants have had to suspend operations but the greater part of them have made satisfactory arrangements with the men.

Six hundred workers are reported on strike at the three San Jose mills, Hubbard & Carmichael, the Fourth Street mill, the Southern Lumber company, the Miller Lumber company, the Duffield Lumber company, the Adams Lumber company and the Sunnyvale Lumber company. All granted the demand of the workers who remained on the job at these plants.

Joe Cambiano, of the mill workers, said that already mill workers around San Jose had started to leave for districts where the $8 a day scale was being paid. The millmen claim that they are the lowest paid of skilled workmen in hazardous occupations.

J. A. Chase of the S. H. Chase Lumber company at San Jose said: "We are operating our box factory and lumber yard but our men in the planing mill, door, sash and cabinet departments are out."

The demands of the millmen's union has been for an increase of $2 per day in the door and each department and $1 per day in other departments.

COURT WILL QUIZ JURY'S LUXURY BILL

Judicial investigation of the "luxuries" bill submitted by the cigar stand in the Hotel Oakland in which the cigar dealer charges the county for $148.53 worth of magazines, cigars, chewing tobacco, candy, chewing gum and cosmetics said to have been consumed by the six men and six women jurors in the Anita Whittier case during their twenty-four day confinement in the hotel, may be made by Superior Judge James G. Quinn following denials of extravagance made by various jurors.

Four men consumed 742 cigars or 195 cigars each in the twenty-four days, according to the tobacco dealer's bill. J. A. Collins of 2219 San Antonio avenue, Alameda, said it could not total more than 432 or 217 less than the bill specifies.

J. W. McDermott, former Oakland school superintendent, and J. W. Watson of 1927 Parker street, Berkeley, both declared today that the charges for luxuries were exorbitant as they had not used nearly so many cigars, that very few magazines had been in evidence and that many of the men shaved themselves and shined their own shoes.

The women also deny that they ran up a $60 bill for cosmetics.

Auditor Frank Garrison of this county is holding up the bill until it can be investigated further.

Judge Quinn said that the matter had not yet been referred to him but that when it was, he would make a searching investigation.

OIL FIGHT TOLD BY BERKELEYMAN

A remarkable story of a disputed boundary line between two states, upon the decision in which depends the title to vast acres of oil land on the line between Texas and Oklahoma, is brought from the Red River district by Charles H. Spinks of Berkeley.

The Red river forms a part of the boundary line between Texas and Oklahoma, and in the Red river valley oil has been discovered. In fact the oil is found by drilling in the very bed of the river. This river is like others in the Texas country, a freshet in the spring with a bed two miles wide, but dwindling down to a mere rivulet in the autumn, and up to this fact depends the battle that is now on between the two states, a battle in which armed Texas Rangers are playing an important part.

Texas claimed title "to the middle of the river," Oklahoma claimed title "to the south bank." One court decided one way and another court the other. The supreme court of the United States has placed a receiver in charge of the disputed lands.

But the great question was, "Where was the middle of the river?"

The state of Texas wanted the river bottom, and sent an armed force of Rangers to take possession. The Rangers were armed with shotguns as well as rifles, and one night they moved upon the little rivulet of water that was trickling down the middle of a waste of sand and gravel that was two miles wide, meandering at will along the river bottom. With the move the river an average of a mile northward by simply digging a new channel under the extreme north bank.

The next morning found a new river channel a mile north of where the water had been running the day before and two miles inside of the "south bank" claimed by Oklahoma, and armed Texas Rangers were "dig in" prepared to defend their claims to "the middle" of the Red river.

According to Spinks there are tangled titles in much of this district that will take years to straighten out, and there are already many decisions of lower courts involving thousands upon thousands of acres of valuable oil lands valued at millions of dollars.

WIFE REPLACES STRIKER. LYNCHBURG, Va., April 2—

When C. E. Bowles, assistant ticket agent of the Norfolk and Western here, went on strike his wife stepped into his position over his protest about forty clerks and trainmen went out on strike here.

BURGLARS BUSY ALL OVER CITY

With burglaries reported in almost every section of Oakland last night the police department today has a long list of articles stolen, a few clues and no arrests to show for their activities.

Ranging in value from a truck load of intoxicating liquors, taken from the home of C. A. Appeldorn, to a fur coat taken from C. F. Shapiro, the loot in all represents over $1500.

At the Appeldorn home, 51 Eighth street, the burglars drove up with a truck and emptied the entire alcoholic contents of the cellar. Fifty-five cases of brandy, 25 cases of port and five cases of Scotch whisky were carried away.

J. L. Snodgrass, 5558 Taft avenue, reported that thieves had broken into his home and into a desk in his room and had taken $445 in currency and a $100 Liberty bond. They used a screw driver to open the desk.

War savings stamps to the amount of $100 and $200 in jewelry was taken from the home of R. S. Nossler, 558 Thirty-eighth street, shortly before dark last evening.

From the little store operated by Mrs. L. Smith, 3074 Fruitvale avenue, burglars took $55.

C. F. Shapiro, 1015 Harvard road, lost a fur overcoat valued at more than $100.

Noise made by a burglar climbing the back stairs in the home of William Sjoberg awakened Sjoberg and he gave chase. The burglar ran out of the back door and disappeared. Sjoberg lives at 1680 Chase street.

Deportation Trials Continued Till Mon.

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., April 2—The Bisbee deportation trials was in recess today on account of Good Friday. Sessions will be resumed Monday.

The defense is now devoting its efforts to attempts to show that miners who remained at work were intimidated during the strike which preceded the deportations.

Miner dialect has for several days dominated the court proceedings. Even the attorneys are using it.

"There'll be a witness up in the next bucket," one lawyer solemnly told the court when there was delay in calling the next witness to the stand.

DOOM SEEN FOR PEACE RESOLUTION

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Republican leaders in Congress will not be able to muster enough votes to pass their peace resolution over the veto of the President, leading House Democrats today declared after a canvass.

Both Champ Clark, Missouri, Democratic floor leader, and Representative Flood, Virginia, ranking minority member of the foreign affairs committee, stated today it is impossible for the Republicans to force the resolution by a two-thirds majority necessary to override a veto.

President Wilson has indicated to close advisers that he will not sign the resolution, which if Democratic predictions to the House vote are true, means that a legal peace will not come until the Senate and the President have agreed on some kind of a treaty. This, in all probability, will not be until after the election, unless the President yields to the Senate reservations.

Democrats are massing their forces for an attack on the resolution when it comes up in the House. Determination of Democratic party leaders to nullify the Republican resolution against its authors as campaign material, was evidenced, Democrats said today, by the statement of Homer Cummings, who said he "had no difficulty" finding out what President Wilson thought about things, declared the peace resolution "was the lowest ab of moral incapacity to which Republican leadership has yet sunk."

FORGER SUSPECT HELD

Held by the police as a forger suspect, J. H. Stevens, who was arrested last night by Patrolman J. A. Ling at a lodging house at 14th St. and Washington street, in the city, while the authorities investigate his record. He passed a check for $15.85 on the Oakland Shue House, Seventh and Broadway, which is alleged by the police to be fictitious. It is made out on a Los Angeles bank.

ENGINEER KIRBY GAINED 25 POUNDS

"I have gained twenty-five pounds in weight and for the first time in over a year I can now cut whatever I want without being troubled afterwards and Tanlac deserves credit for all," was the statement made a few days ago by C. J. Kirby, a popular locomotive engineer, residing at 231 Salmon street, Portland, Ore. Kirby, who is a little over a year ago started going down hill and felt off in weight until I got down to one hundred and twenty-five pounds and hardly had strength enough left to stay in my work. What I did was to get a long breath. I would often have bilious attacks that lasted for several days and I would get no sleep. I had to take a laxative for constipation and I was subject to terrible headaches at times. I thought my head would burst.

"A friend of mine who was troubled like I was had started taking Tanlac and when I saw what it had done for her it didn't take me long to get a bottle and begin taking it. I have never seen anything like it in all my life. It has done more for me than I ever expected any medicine could possibly do, and as a result I am now feeling better and working better than I have in many years. My stomach many times no longer troubles me and I am enjoying three hearty meals every day. I am no longer troubled with biliousness or headaches, any more and am entirely relieved of constipation. Tanlac is the greatest builder I have ever seen and I am telling all my friends about it. Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company Stores.—Advertisement.

America is Balkans, Declares Rumania

BUCHAREST, April 2.—(By Associated Press.)—Safety for Europe lies in an alliance between Rumania, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Greece. In the opinion of Take Ionescu, who as an editor, financier and politician, has played a prominent role in the national life of his country for a quarter of a century. Talking with an Associated Press correspondent recently he expressed the hope of seeing such an alliance realized, with America taking an important part in the work of Balkan countries.

"Unless America shows interest in Balkan commerce," he said, "it is possible we all will again fall into the hands of Germany, if only because of the exchange situation."

"America will not take advantage, another solution must be found. I advocate sending Rumanian troops to help the allies in present scheme of neutralizing Constantinople and the Dardanelles as we have a great interest in keeping open that outlet to the sea."

"One of the worst conditions confronting us is that the people will not work. During the last five years we have produced nothing, but have acquired a taste for higher standards of living. From an economical point of view it was one long joy ride. War means waste and also laziness."

DANIELS READY FOR HIS DEFENSE

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE. LEADERSHIP TO THURSDAY.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—With the completion of Admiral Sims' case, the navy department today began its defense of the charges which have been going on for weeks before the sub-committee of the senate committee on naval affairs, the investigation today started in on its last phase, namely, the presentation of Secretary Daniels' case.

Among the witnesses to be heard are Rear Admiral Rodman, Rear Admiral Niblack, Rear Admiral Strauss and other high officials of the navy. The navy department today presented its case, which is the testimony of Admiral Sims, with that of witnesses called by him and documents offered in evidence, amounts to about 250,000 words. The complete list of charges made by the admiral against the navy department may be summarized as follows:

1. The navy was not prepared for service when the United States entered the war in spite of the fact that the war had been going on for a long time.
2. The success of Germany's submarines in the first few months made the first few months after entry extremely critical ones for the allies.
3. This situation was made clear to the navy department.
4. For three months after our entry into the war the navy department supplied Sims with no plans nor policy.
5. Knowing of the critical situation, the navy department delayed action.
6. The department failed to appreciate the military value of time.
7. Fundamental principles were violated by the department which told the former that it had sufficient knowledge of the situation.
8. Sims was not supported by the department during the most critical period of the war through the sending of aides and adequate forces.
9. The department dispersed forces instead of concentrating them in the critical area.
10. The department attempted to direct details from Washington when the war was 3000 miles away and conditions changing daily.
11. The department did not clearly define the responsibility of delegating authority of Sims, thus violating both a business and military principle.
12. By controlling operations of certain forces within the war area, the department violated the fundamental military principle of unity of command.
13. The department failed to keep Sims informed as to its plans and its tactical decisions through information gained elsewhere.
14. The delays of the navy department prolonged the war four months, caused the loss of 550,000 tons of shipping, 500,000 lives and the needless expenditure of billions of dollars.

FRAUD CHARGED TO EX-HUSBAND

Representing that Benjamin Harding Ames, auditor for the Sperry Flour Company, and reputed to be wealthy, frequently concealed from her the fact that he was not her husband, a woman today filed a petition for a divorce decree of divorce which she obtained from Judge T. W. Harris on April 9 on the charge of desertion.

According to Attorney Donohue and Ames, who filed the petition, Ames only gave his wife $100 a month alimony and their former home at 2236 Liberty avenue, Alameda, claiming that he had an income of only $250 a month. Mrs. Ames declares the $100 a month is insufficient to support herself and educate her two children, Benjamin Harding Jr., 18, and Helena E. Ames of Alameda has petitioned the court to set aside the agreement which was incorporated in the interlocutory decree of divorce which she obtained from Judge T. W. Harris on April 9 on the charge of desertion.

BALDNESS UNNECESSARY, SAYS SPECIALIST

Average Man Pays Too Little Attention to the Care of the Hair and Scalp

Prof. John H. Austin, over 40 years a bacteriologist, hair and scalp specialist, who now has offices at The Owl Drug Store, 14th and Washington, points out some of the reasons for an increase in baldness among men.

Prof. Austin is probably right in saying that about one man in every hundred over thinks about his hair at all, except to comb it two or three times a day. If it falls out he looks anxiously at the falling hair and then promptly forgets it until the next time he uses a comb.

A man will give the utmost attention to his teeth, because he knows that when trouble arises he will have more trouble and probably lose his teeth if he doesn't go to a dentist promptly. But his hair doesn't bother him. He just gradually sheds, and when it is nearly gone and the roots are dead, he anxiously tries a dozen different remedies at once and then resigns himself to baldness.

Prof. Austin says the use of dandruff cures, mange cures and hair tonics is like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure. The particular trouble with which your scalp is afflicted must be known before it can be intelligently treated.

FREE MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION of the hair and scalp—both men and women invited—Private Office of Prof. John H. Austin, 14th and Washington. Hours 10 to 12 and 2 to 4. Advertisement.

MY HEART and MY HUSBAND

by ADELE GARRISON

Why Madge Was Frightened at the Situation.

Kenneth Stockbridge's tired face brightened with a smile as he caught sight of our party. But beyond the smile and a bow he made no effort to speak to us, even though the table to which we were seated was directly in front of him. He was very near our own. Of course we realized at once the reason for his constraint. It was evident in his wife's attitude. She included us all in a curt, unsmiling nod, then dropped frowningly into a seat, paying no attention whatever to the rest of her party, but staring moodily at her plate.

She was in one of her worst moods. One could see it not only in her manner, but in the tightened lips and deepened pallor of her husband, and the worried looks of the elderly man and woman, who, together with two younger women near Milly Stockbridge's own age, made up the group at their table.

"Little Sweetie's papa and mama and two sisters are with us tonight," Bess Dean murmured audaciously, but after my first start of dismay I realized that the people at the other table could not possibly have heard her. She has the trick of speaking in an almost inaudible tone, yet managing to make herself comprehended by the person she is addressing.

BESS DEAN OBSERVES. I was relieved, however, when in another minute the orchestra struck up a highly syncopated selection, which made it possible for one's next neighbor to shout the most dangerous secrets without the slightest chance of having them overheard.

"You know, I think there's going to be fireworks," Bess Dean went on, guilelessly pretending to be absorbed in buttering a roll. There was the naive enjoyment of a child at a circus in her voice and manner, and I realized that while she might

"Another thing that don't make him any cheaper is that ever' business man I've called on in the last two months was either in Cuba or Florida—mostly Cuba," said a traveling man today. A silo has been ordered by the Little Gens Cafe, and chop suey 'll be served from now on.

National Newspaper Service. have generous, sensible moments in which she would give any aid in her power to her harassed principal, yet her general attitude toward the domestic tragedy of Kenneth and Milly Stockbridge was that of a spectator, who did not much care whether she were amused or shocked so long as the drama remained interesting.

I was not certain how much she knew or guessed concerning Milly Stockbridge's unusual and absurd jealousy of me, which had so nearly proved a tragedy upon the night of the reception to Dicky at the principal's home. Nor did I care particularly except for my fear that through some inadvertent look or gesture Dicky might suspect the truth. He had bent toward Miss Dean as she spoke, and I saw a look of surprise flash into his face.

A Cruel Complaint.

"Fireworks!" he repeated wonderingly. "Papa the thundercloud at your right!" Miss Dean went on mischievously. "Kenneth's been doing something he hadn't order. Perhaps he's done up the people the proper amount of calories or whatever you call 'em in his evening meal. At any rate, the missus is on the warpath, and if things don't go just her way—just you get ready to dodge the silver! She'll start heaving em at Kenneth, but she has a woman's aim, and you're about the right distance for an innocent bystander."

She was dimpling adorably as she talked, and Dicky laughed heartily at what he evidently accepted as audacious nonsense. But he took advantage of his absorption to murmur a worried question in the ear of Alice Holcombe on the other side of me.

"Do you think we ought to get out of here?"

"We can't," she responded promptly, "without attracting attention both from Milly and the public, which we don't want. You see, we've already ordered, and the waiter will be here in a minute or two with our food. No, there's nothing to do but to sit tight. There's one consolation, her people are all with her. With them all around her they can't repress her. She goes beyond bounds just listen to her. That's an old trick of hers, to worry the life out of her husband and her relatives until they take her to some place of their kind."

Then she proceeded to let loose all the meanness that's in her."

From the other table came the confirmation of her words. Milly Stockbridge's voice was raised shrilly.

"For heaven's sake, Ken, don't slough like that in your chair! You should think you could manage to sit up straight even if you can't stand that way. You just do it on purpose to annoy me!"

Chicken Cocotte

ROSE-EMME.

Cut up one pound and a quarter to a pound and a half chicken. Divide into four parts the two legs and the breast part out in two. Put the pieces in the bottom of a cocotte (a small earthen saucepan) with a little piece of butter the size of a nut. Place the legs underneath and the breast on top. Add a small bunch of parsley, garnished with thyme and a bay leaf on top of it lay two ounces of unsmoked bacon cut in five-eighths inch squares, blanched and fried in butter. Also a dozen and a half pieces of potatoes shaped like clove of garlic and as many small onions fried to a light color. Butter. Lay here and there half an ounce more butter, put on the lid, and push into a moderate oven for a half hour. The cocotte should stand directly in the bottom of the oven. Turn the ingredients over carefully, arranging the meat on top of the vegetable. Let cook for another ten to fifteen minutes. Then add a little clear gravy and shopped parsley. Toss and serve in the cocotte itself.

SMILES

"What is the height of happiness?" mused the philosophical girl. "Well, in my case," laughed the pretty bride, "it is about five feet ten."

"Remember, it rains on the just and the unjust alike." "Yes; but the unjust generally are the ones who can afford to hire taxicabs and not get wet."—Judge.

"Gabbels seems to be well informed on any subject." "Except when he will be able to pay me what he owes me. He is absolutely stupid on that point."

"Is your boy Josh setting down to work?" "No, he's just taking notice of it," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "I'm willing to bet that after the prodigal son got settled back in the old home he soon had the old folks kind of worried and shamed because they didn't smoke his brand of cigarettes and couldn't name the really p'chor stars."

When You're Ready for The Raise

Don't you be a-sighin' while the light is in the skies, You'll git the wings for flyin' When you're ready for the rise!

You'll rise, rise high When you're fitted for to fly, But tellin' earth "Good mornin'" Is better than "Good-bye!"

The bulls are 'way up yonder An' it thunders 'round 'em still; The shadows of the meadow Bents the blaze that's on the hill.

You'll rise, rise high When you're fitted for to fly, But tellin' home "Good mornin'" Is better than "Good-bye!"

GO TO IT. You'll git the glory an' the grace, But—make the break beginnin'! The best horse allus wins the race That's worth the winnin'!

Words of the Wise

A man envies every other man except his son and his pupil.—Hebrew Proverbs.

Equality cause' no war.—Solon.

A barren sow is never kind to pigs.

At a round table the herald is useless.

By land or water the wind is ever in my face.

Few men succeed because they are naturally brilliant. Success is due usually to persistence, determination, and ambition. Any man can cultivate those qualities.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion you have already tried popsin, bismuth soda, charcoal, drugs and a number of dietaries, and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

Put before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisubated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate citrate oxide or milk but the pure bisubated magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little bisubated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continuous use of the bisubated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion—Advertorial.

CONNELL FACES BOARD'S CHARGE

Charges made against M. J. Connell, of Los Angeles, by two other officers of the fish and game commission, are threatening not only the disruption of the board but to force an investigation by Governor William D. Stephens. That council has kept commission money, to the amount of $25,000 a month, on deposit in Los Angeles banks of which he is a stockholder, instead of turning it over to the state, is the main allegation of Carl Westerfield, executive officer of the commission. Westerfield is joined by E. L. Bosc, the other San Francisco member of the commission, in the request for an investigation of the situation and of charges that Connell has sought to divide the work of the board into sections, and that he has neglected important duties.

Westerfield says that he has repeatedly asked Connell to forward the money to the state treasurer and that no attention has been paid the request. It is also said that the state board of control filed with the governor, in December, these same charges against Connell but that the governor has given them no heed.

Connell arrived in San Francisco today where a meeting of the commission is to be held. Frank N. Newberry of Sacramento is the other member of the commission.

CHINA TO HALT STUDENT RIOTS

PEKING, March 4.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Use of armed forces to prohibit any further students' activities, was today authorized by the Central Peking government in telegraphic orders to all provinces except the southwest. This is a result of recent student demonstrations signifying disapproval of proposed direct negotiations with Japan over restoration of Shanghai.

"In view of the menace of Russian Bolsheviks, who are daily approaching the Chinese frontier," the order reads, "it is necessary for provincial authorities to adopt drastic measures to deal with student demonstrations in the future."

The ministry of communications has also issued orders to all Chinese telegraph offices instructing managers to stop transmission of telegrams from students or others which may endanger the peace and order of the country, especially in matters concerning foreign countries.

MRS. GRIGSBY WAS BURIED FOR ANOTHER

Mystery surrounding the disappearance, four months ago, of Mrs. Edward S. Grigsby, University of California graduate and widely known in Eastbay society, has been dissipated with the discovery that the body of a woman taken from the Truckee river near Reno two weeks ago and identified as that of another, is in reality that of the local woman.

Mrs. Grigsby, wife of a prominent Tonoah engineer, been missing since early in December when she left Oakland to visit a friend in Reno. It was while she was on her way to this friend's home to dinner that she crossed the Truckee river on the ice and fell through a hole that had been made by skaters. No one saw the accident and a country-wide search for her was conducted.

Two weeks ago the body of a woman was taken from the river and identified as Mrs. Sarah Haley, a woman known in Reno. Later the chief of police received a letter that the published description of Mrs. Grigsby corresponded to that of the woman. Relatives were notified and the identity was established by means of a watch. The body has been exhumed and taken to the Masonic cemetery at Reno.

Mrs. Grigsby was the sister of David and Will Richardson of San Francisco. She formerly taught in Miss Head's school in Berkeley and was a graduate of the University of California where she was known as a brilliant mathematician.

LABOR DEMANDS EXCEED SUPPLY

Five hundred men and one hundred women and girls on the average apply for employment at the State Employment Bureau, Ninth and Broadway, this city, every day. Of late a general increase has been noticeable in all lines of industry. This offer of service, however, runs far short of the call for help on the farms, in the homes, in factories and in skilled and professional service.

Even snake charmers, cabaret entertainers, fortune tellers and dancers are demanded. Applications for help come into the office from all parts of California and frequently from adjoining states and Hawaii.

At present, persons awaiting many skilled female office workers at wages ranging from $5 to $12.50 per month. Milkers of thirty cows, the "California string" are offered $110 to $125 per month and board for man and wife. A large number of domestics are needed, those of best quality and experience being offered $15 per month in small families, with immediate accommodations as to baths, hours of employment and home advantages.

Domestics are offered $50 to $60 and day workers, boarding at home, may have $4 per day. But notwithstanding these liberal figures they are declined, more and more, as help is forsaking domestic service to seek clerical and factory jobs, often for less money.

Skilled male workers, members of unions on strike, are asking for work, but demanding skilled scale wages in other service, and many are thus employed. The average wage for unskilled service is $4.60 for 46 hours work per week. Demands for out-of-town jobs, on big construction work, are not filled even in such proportion, the men declining to accept camp conditions.

Reasons given by the agency officials for the refusal of women to accept domestic service are three in number. Education is prompting girls to seek employment where the advantage may serve to enhance income, and where advancement is possible; reduction of immigration for the past five years and, to some extent, matrimony. Some eastern girls are coming to California looking for employment.

No Orientals are unemployed, the bureau says.

Husband Is Through With Women, He Says

"I've had my fill of women," wrote Louis Maehler to his wife, Mrs. Louise Maehler, according to evidence before Judge J. W. Harris in Mrs. Maehler's suit for divorce.

Maehler is charged with neglect and failure to provide. Mrs. Maehler introduced a letter declared to have been written to her by her husband, in which he complained of talking said to have been done by his wife's relatives linking his name with those of other women. A portion of the letter follows:

"Tell your old man I'm going to make him and Merritt prove their talk about me staying with other women. Believe me, I've had my fill of women."

Judge Harris granted Mrs. Maehler an interlocutory decree.

San Francisco Fire Causes $50,000 Loss

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Fire last night destroyed an unoccupied building at 2040 Howard street. The building was recently occupied by W. Davis and Sons, harness dealers, and in storage there were a large number of patterns, belonging to Meese and Gottfried which were destroyed. The Mission and Rex Hotels adjoining, were threatened for a time. The loss was $50,000.

CAMPFIRE GUARDIANS MEET.—The regular monthly meeting of the Eastbay Campfire Guardians Association will be held Saturday morning at 9.30 o'clock in the clubrooms of the Y. W. C. A. Lesson in bookbinding will be conducted by Mrs. C. G. Hyde of Berkeley.

SHOE COST DUE TO DROP SOON, EXPERTS CLAIM

WASHINGTON, April 2 (By International News Service).—Top-notch prices for shoes are due to hit the toboggan Government experts in a survey completed today declared market conditions do not warrant present quotations. They predict a gradual recession that will be pronounced in the next few months.

Slackening demand has affected hides, leather and shoes, the expert survey revealed. Large accumulations of stocks of hides are reported. In some districts reports show that a check upon the finished product may have been influenced by a desire to prevent a sharp reduction in retail prices. Shoe dealers are holding back on orders for fall trade, expecting a reduction in price. Many manufacturers, as a result, have an over supply of manufactured goods.

New business offered tanneries in some districts, been small in volume. Labor troubles are given by many factories as the reason for operating only part time.

AN OPPORTUNITY PASSES.

As with individuals, there is a tide in the life of States which taken at the flood may lead to distinction. Such a period in the life of the State of Mississippi was reached last Tuesday, when for the second time the legislature in session at Jackson rejected the equal suffrage amendment to the Constitution.

The Federal amendment lacks only the vote of one more State for the number necessary to ratification. The legislatures of Mississippi and Delaware were in session. In Mississippi the upper house had just reversed its former decision not to ratify and voted favorably on the amendment. It was up to the lower chamber to say yes or no for the State.

Delaware, it was practically certain, would not ratify. Little support for woman suffrage was expected from Southern States and here was a surprising situation—the South might make the pivotal decision, while the North, on which so much dependence had been placed, faltered. The South after all might have given women their right to vote in the coming presidential primaries and in the November election.

But the Mississippi lower house was obdurate. It rejected the amendment by a vote of 94 to 23; decisively. It ran true to the form expected of it. It refused to surprise the country with the agreeable news that it had determined an important question on its broad moral and intellectual appeals; that it had risen above the provincialism of which it had been suspected.

Thus the tide passed out and carried with it Mississippi's opportunity to gain meritorious distinction. The great State which has contributed not a little to cultural and political America stands with that member of its legislature who declared he had rather die and go to Hades than vote for woman suffrage.

Meantime Delaware has rejected the amendment and the equal suffrage forces are discouraged in their hope of obtaining permission from the male lawmakers of the Eastern half of the country to vote in the presidential election. They are discouraged but not dismayed.

HIDES AND SHOES.

Whatever may be the justification for the prevailing prices of footwear and all other articles of leather goods consumption obviously is a large factor and is something for which high prices have held no terrors. Foreign trade figures recently compiled show that the quantity of hides imported into the country during the seven months ended with January 31 last was two and one-half times as much as for the same period last year and the prices paid for them were four times as much.

Concretely, the quantity of hides imported during the period mentioned was 545,000,000 pounds against 210,000,000 in the same months of 1918-1919 and the stated value $241,000,000 against $59,000,000. The National City Bank of New York, which furnishes these trade statistics, observes that all the raw material imported is not used in the manufacture of shoes, but that the increase in those classes distinctly used for shoes is very large, and the same is true of prices.

The quantity of calf skins imported in the seven months ending with January 1920 is 50,000,000 pounds valued at $27,000,000, against less than 3,000,000 pounds valued at a little over $1,000,000 in 1919, while the average import price in January 1920 is 56.6 cents per pound against 18.4 cents at the termination of the war, November 1918. Goat skins, used chiefly in the manufacture of shoes, show a total for the seven months ending with January of $9,000,000 pounds against 25,000,000 in the corresponding months of the preceding year, and the price in January 1920 95.5 cents per pound against 67.9 cents in January 1919, and 54.1 cents in the month in which the war ended. Dry goat skins normally averaged more than $1.99 per pound in January 1920 as against an average of over 26 cents per pound in the year preceding the war. Hides of cattle show a total for the seven months ending with January of 309,000,000 pounds against 110,000,000 in the same months of last year, and the average price per pound in January 1920 36.6 cents against 21.4 cents in January 1919, and 22.2 cents in November 1918.

Domestic supply of hides certainly has not been less than in previous years. Apparently it has been more, for figures gathered by the Department of Agriculture show an actual decrease in cattle during the last calendar year. This was the result of the high prices paid for beef cattle and the high cost of feed. Cattle raisers disposed of milk cows and steers which otherwise would not have been marketed because it was the better economy to do so.

A large quantity of the shoes manufactured have been exported to Europe and other countries, but allowing for this the domestic consumption of footwear has been very much larger than ever before in the history of the country. As in the case of sugar, coffee, clothing and other products, this was the result of the prosperity, the unprecedented purchasing power, which the people, despite high prices, enjoyed. Instead of high prices deterring the purchase of necessities they have not even been a warning against unwise buying and sheer extravagance.

A CAMPAIGN IN MEXICO.

There is a saying that no seasoned ballot box in Mexico is without a bullet hole or two and that pistols and politics down there are inseparable.

With an attempt to kidnap Ignacio Bonillas, "civilian" candidate for the presidency, and the shooting of two policemen and the arrest of Candidate Obregon, the Mexican campaign may be said to have opened in earnest. The election is to take place on July 11 and the man chosen will take his seat, barring a bullet or a revolution, on December 1.

A sign that Mexican popular opinion is turning away from "militarism" is seen in the desire of all of the prominent candidates to be known as civilian aspirants. Bonillas, who was former Mexican ambassador to the United States, is the champion of the party of that name. Generals Obregon and Gonzales are mentioned most often as his opponents and both have requested retirement from the army that they might be regarded, also, as civilians. The race is likely to narrow down to one between Bonillas and Obregon although the forces of General Gonzales do not admit they are out of consideration.

The attitude of President Carranza with respect to his successor has been stated by him in these words: "Not for a single day after December 1 will I remain as president of the Republic." Such a declaration in any other republic would be superfluous but in Mexico presidents have had a habit of holding on to their jobs by force of arms and stuffed ballot boxes and upon the disposition and the army of the man who rules the other candidates look with distrust and anxiety. It appears though, this time, that Carranza is through and the fact that he is not to be president of Mexico may be regarded as more important than any speculations as to who will be.

President Wilson ignored the question as to whether his name should go on the ballot for the Georgia preference primary at which delegates to the conventions to nominate presidential candidates are to be instructed how to vote. He did not bother to answer the request of the Georgia authorities for information as to his wishes. Thus the Democrats are again denied that much coveted knowledge as to the intention of the President regarding a third time. He refused to be smoked out. He is still an incubus on the hopes of certain Democratic leaders who have a well nurtured ambition to be candidates. Many of the candidates show positive dislike for the primary. They are seemingly not pleased with the idea of having the people express judgment upon their worthiness to run for office. The result naturally will be fewer instructed delegations to the national conventions and more opportunity for the unpledged delegates to shape the decisions.

Indicative of the ease with which the American public becomes accustomed to change is the fact that no one, any more, expects a pie to be cut in four pieces.

A popular bit of advice for this season is that it is time to think about a garden. Many a man has done that much every spring of his life.

SHORTAGE OF FREIGHT CARS.

It is not easy for the mass of people to be conscious of a shortage in the use of freight cars, because that factor in supplying them with what they want is practically out of sight, and they do not think about it. But one of the most serious conditions in these days for getting various supplies to meet the demand and thereby affecting costs and comfort in living, is lack of capacity for getting the things which are actually produced, promptly and regularly to market. In the latest number of the Federal Reserve Bulletin is a concise statement of the reports of agents in the different reserve districts, of the acute results of shortage of cars for carrying freight. Summaries are presented of the conditions in a number of districts.

The fact is that even before trains were taken over for Government war service, or diverted to transportation of supplies for export on account of the war before we were in its service, there had been such restriction upon charges for transportation and lack of fair and prompt payment, that facilities could not be kept up to meet the demand. Now they have become far short, and are generally estimated that it would take a billion dollars to get the whole system up to the highest efficiency, which it is going to be eventually desirable to do for future prosperity.

There is a great problem to be worked out and it cannot be done in a hurry, but this is the worst possible time for having it worked out, whether by Government inability, the lack of capital for rapid construction of facilities, or the attitude of labor in regard to doing its part without being paid more than any means can be raised for pay. It is not simply capital invested for transportation or labor employed in it that is affected, or even the industries and trade of the country generally. There is the task of restoring wrecked conditions of various kinds and getting them back to normal shape for comfort and successful action. All the forces that are unmet, disintegrated, contentious or reckless, are affected in a small degree by the lack of ready and continuous means of transportation of things from where they are to where they are wanted.—New York Journal of Commerce.

NOTES and COMMENT

The public doesn't always realize the progress that has been made. This community and county, for instance, have come far beyond the staid, built some forty-five years ago. It is decidedly a back number, and when the time comes to build another, more in keeping with modern requirements, it should of course be located more centrally. Conditions that governed anciently are grotesquely obsolete.

The "Safety First" campaign is now on. It began today. In this era of strenuousness and many dangers it is very proper to celebrate cautionary observances. Every automobile driver, for instance, will be cordially welcome to listen to every suggestion offered to make situations and conditions less deadly for pedestrians.

In Sergeant Bullentine's book of reminiscences it is related how General Blucher, recounting his experience in visiting London as a guest after Waterloo, concluded with "What a city that would be to sack!" After a hundred years that was still the general German idea, preserved through repeated professions of friendship.

Kathleen Burke, the young exuberant Scotch warrior who was wounded at Verdun, and who will be remembered for her efforts to inculcate the martial spirit hereabout, gaining a genial fame because of her paternal eloquence, is to marry a Santa Barbara millionaire. The Cupid dart is her second wound, though it is very different from the Verdun experience.

It is interesting to read that the commissioner of streets has "declared war" on the odors of the West Oakland dumps. The odors may not constitute an entity that can be charged like a squad of Bolsheviks, but they are a palpable presence that those who come near agree should be routed.

News from Washington is to the effect that the administration is to drop 10,000 clerks. Here the country entered into the war there were 2816 clerks in the War Department. At the height of hostilities there were 37,000. Now there are 22,000, and the war ended a year and four months ago. Similar interesting statistics are given regarding other departments. The clerks would seem to still be carrying on.

Uncle "Joe" Cannon, in intervening to prevent a clash between a fire Texas and a fire Minnesota, rather steadfast Minnesota on the floor of Congress, manifested again his picturesque quality. He is 83 in years, and there are many who will not regret that the efforts of certain saviors of the country a few years ago failed to put him in eclipse as a genuine American of the Grand Old Man type.

It is an unusual anniversary to celebrate—the date of this country's entrance into the European war. That is what they propose at Carson.

How Jack London's memory is honored is well illustrated in the formation of a Martin Eden Club by young writers. "Martin Eden" is accepted as biographic, telling something of the story of the author's struggles, in which mountainous obstacles were overcome and world fame achieved by determination and persistence. The club is to keep this spirit alive.

Here we have it again. Seven of the jurors voted to acquit the woman who shot her husband in the Palace hotel. The merits of this particular case need not come in for discussion. The fact is being emphasized that woman runs small risk of consequences in shooting mere man.

Are the barber edicts and efforts at legislation to cause a return to olden customs of wearing the hair and whiskers? A look through an album of fifty years ago will disclose the man of the period revelling in lengthened locks generally parted behind and combed forward over his ears, with a consciousness of looking natty. And what young man omitted burndies if he could induce them to sprout? Our present clipped styles are strikingly in contrast, and the barbers seem to be willing to change them back to the hirsute profusion of other days.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Well might President Wilson have exclaimed as the vote of Senator Phelan was recorded for the treaty with the Lodge reservations, "Et tu, Brute!"—Chicago Enterprise.

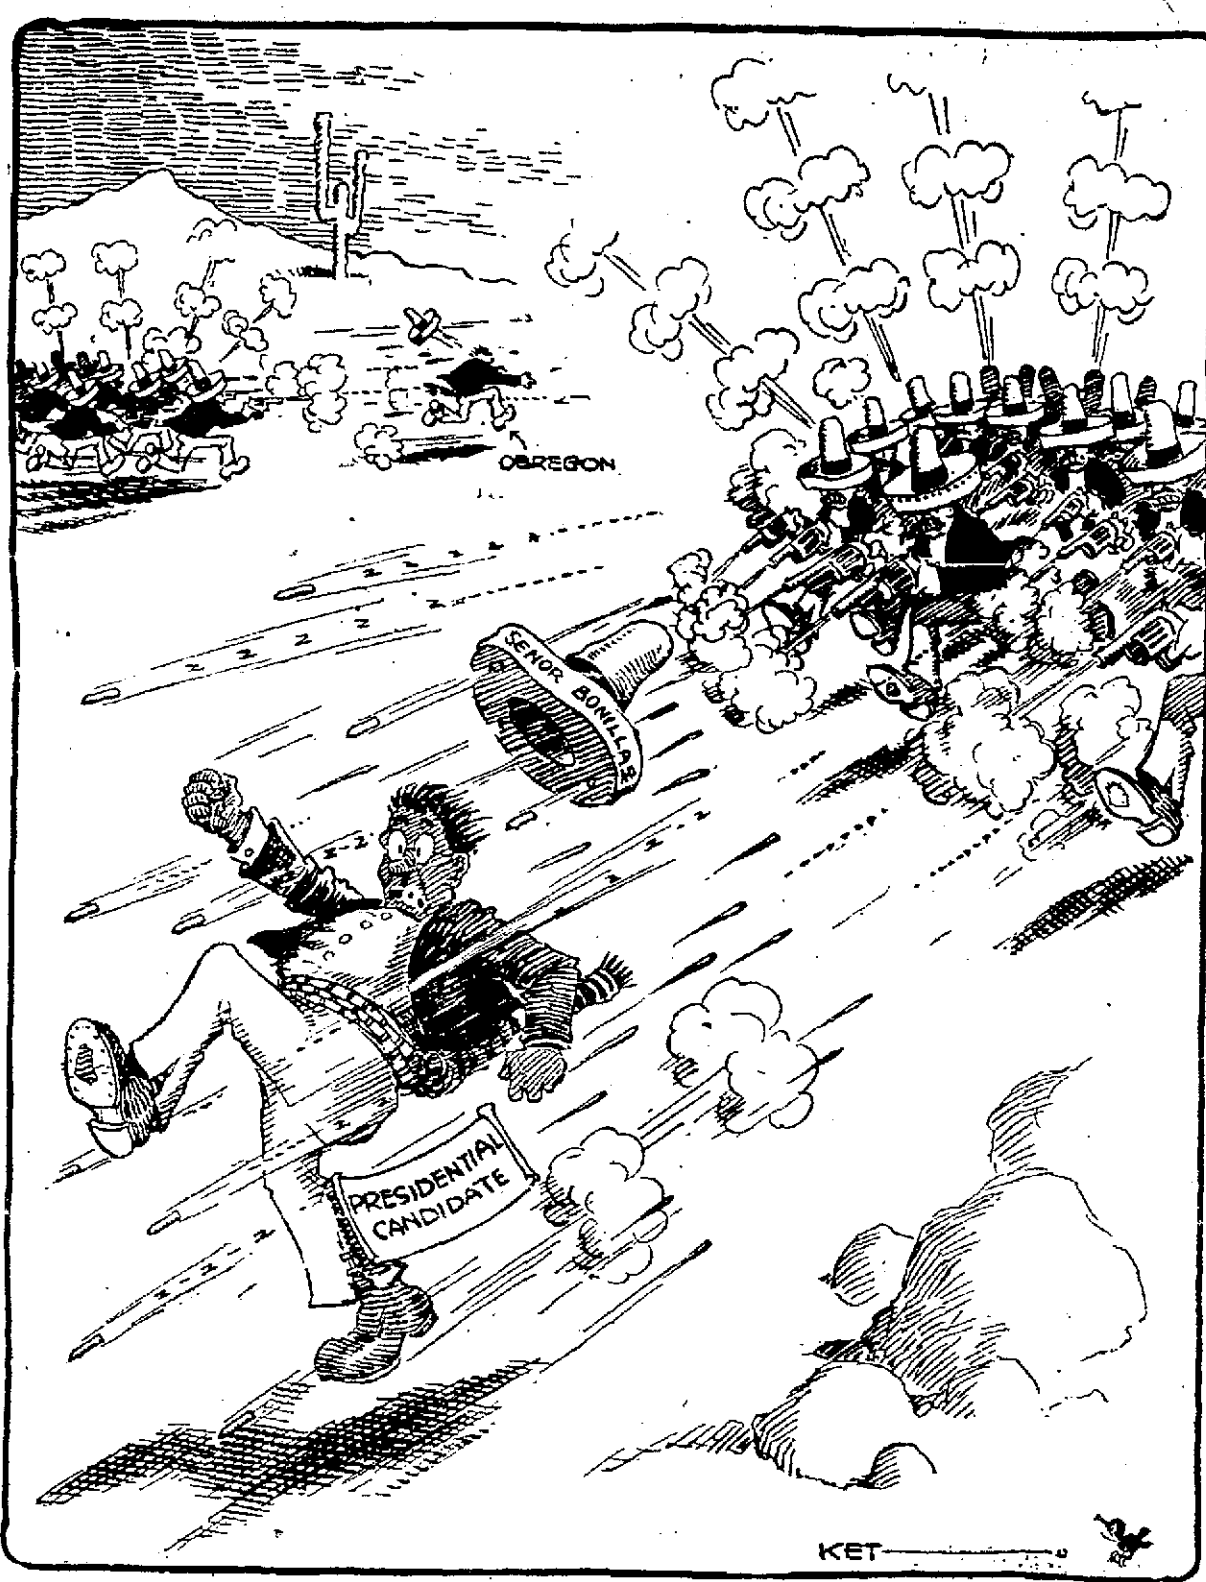

Hemet News says Santa Ana has a miss named "Charity Apple" and she's a "pippin." But out in the Alameda district west of Dixon is a miss named "Mary Lemon" and so far no one has been able to squeeze her.—Dixon Tribune.

The Fresno Republican at some length explains that though sorority houses and even sororities may go, woman is not a creature who can be demoralized. She is by instinct an aristocrat. She wants to be exclusive. It concludes a very interesting editorial on the subject, by remarking "if you want to make girls democratic, the first step is to make them into boys."—Stockton Record.

We respectfully call the attention of Ashley Turner, press agent extraordinary, to the fact that a former Shasta county woman is a mother at the age of 71.—Redding Searchlight.

A baseball league to include the teams of Santa Barbara, Santa Maria, Santa Ynez, Orcutt, Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo, Ventura and Oxnard is now being organized. This action comes from Santa Barbara, having been dropped from the Southern California League by the more southern members of the organization.—Lompoc Review.

THEY WILL FORGIVE BENSON.

Rear Admiral Benson might now run for president on the platform, "Don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes." Rear Admiral Sims admits it was Benson, not Secretary Daniels, who told him that. Had the secretary said it, good night Josephus; but Benson is a bluff old sea dog with an inherited anti-British sentiment. He will be forgiven, especially by Senator Borah, Mr. Hearst and the friends of Irish freedom. Others forgive him because, in selecting Sims for the post in England, Benson suppressed his anti-British feeling and placed duty above prejudice.—Springfield Republican.

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

All Wood Alcohol Poisonous;
Why You Can't Detect It.

By DR. LEONARD K. HIRSBERG
A. M. N. A. M. D.
(Johns Hopkins University)

"Wood alcohol," writes Professor Hunt of the medical school of Harvard University, "has become known as the American poison on account of the frequency with which cases of poisoning have been traced to it in the United States. Despite this fact, there is still a lack of appreciation of its dangers and of an understanding of its nature. It is on this account that I am glad to comply with the request of the American Chemical Society to prepare this bulletin.

REQUIRES A CHEMIST
"The misconception of the dangers of wood alcohol evidently exists not only among those who drink or sell alcoholic beverages of unknown origin, but also to those who prepare drinks containing wood alcohol for sale and perhaps also to those who sell wood alcohol to the latter class. No other explanation of the recent accidents is thinkable.

"Many consumers and perhaps some of those who sell such drinks seem to think that wood alcohol has such characteristic properties that by the odor or taste. On the other hand, those who make such drinks know that this is not the case, but either believe that the poisonous action has been exaggerated or that the chances of detection are relatively slight.

"Moreover, testimony was offered in a court a number of years ago to the effect that some manufacturers of flavoring extracts had been approached by dealers in wood alcohol and urged to make their preparations with it. The fact that already at that time the bottles bore the label 'poison' was explained as a ruse to prevent the government from placing an internal revenue tax upon wood alcohol.

"It cannot be too strongly emphasized that there is not a single property of wood alcohol except its poisonous effects by which anyone but a chemist can distinguish between purified wood alcohol and ordinary grain alcohol. The appearance, odor and taste of the two are so strikingly alike that even chemists who have had much experience with them are unable by these properties to distinguish between them with certainty.

FATAL PERCENTAGE LARGE.

"Poisonousness is an inherent quality of wood alcohol. It is as impossible to prepare a non-poisonous wood alcohol as it is to prepare non-poisonous prussic acid.

"That wood alcohol is properly placed on the list of deadly poisons is evident from the fact that the mortality from arsenic poisoning is only 60 to 75 per cent, and that from bichloride of mercury even less. Of a group of 130 men who drank a mixture of wood and grain alcohol all but one died of poisoning blind."

GUARD JURY PLEA MADE BY DOLSEN

J. H. Dolsen, who is defending himself against a charge of criminal syndicalism before Judge James G. Quinn, today accused members of the district attorney's office of fraternizing with members of the jury for the purpose of influencing them in their verdict.

"I ask the court to admonish members of the district attorney's office to not fraternize with members of the jury so as to subtly influence them in their verdict," said Dolsen, when the trial was resumed after a recess.

"Can we say good morning to the jurors?" asked Deputy District Attorney Myron Harris, who is prosecuting the case.

"Yes, you can say good morning and smile, but that is all," retorted Dolsen.

"I will admonish the jury," said Judge Quinn.

"I want the members of the district attorney's office admonished, not the jurors," said Dolsen.

"Let it so be ordered," ruled the court.

Today's session was taken up with the reading of radical literature alleged to have been circulated by the Communist Labor party and the I. W. W. The prosecution is expected to close its case at a late hour with testimony by Inspector Fenton Thompson.

Running of Skull and Keys Society Under Feminine Ban

BERKELEY, April 2.—The annual running of the Skull and Keys society will be interdicted hereafter if the girls of the university have their way. Raising their voices in protest at a meeting of the Associated Women's Students yesterday afternoon in Wheeler auditorium, the ban was placed without a dissenting vote on the ceremony held annually on the campus to initiate neophytes into this man's honor organization.

It was Miss Katharine Schwaner, president of the women's organization, who voiced the attack.

"The executive committee of the Associated Women's Students has decided that it was time that college women took action in publicly expressing their disapproval of the manner in which Skull and Keys business are conducted," she said.

"We have talked before and it is time for action now. Either the women of the university approve of the running or they don't. What is your verdict?"

Miss Cleone Snook, talented campus dancer, rose indignantly to her feet.

OBJECT TO COLLEGE JOKES.

"So many of the jokes perpetrated by the men are so bad that a decent girl can't understand them," was her contribution.

"The only way to clean up the running is for the women to stay away," came from Miss Elizabeth Beall, Oakland girl and senior student.

"I move that college women in the future remain away from Skull and Keys running," was the direct shout of Miss Sue Crawford, song leader.

DRILLS WILL TEST NAVAL BASE STRATA

ALAMEDA, April 2.—Diamond drills borings to determine whether the foundation encountered at the proposed site of the Alameda naval base is adequate to withstand the immense weight of dry dock construction will be started Monday. City Engineer Hickok has been informed that an official navy department contractor will bore to a depth of 200 feet, that his work here will take three or four days and that he will then proceed to Hunters Point for a similar test.

BORING SITES MARKED.

A party of four civil engineers acting under the orders of Admiral Jayne of Mare Island, yesterday secured data from the first survey of the site made by Alameda and are busy today marking points where borings are to be taken. Barnett Hamilton, assistant city engineer of Alameda, is assisting them with all available information at hand.

From fifty to a hundred borings will be made, the contractor says, and the core as it is forced to the surface and marking each section, thus revealing to the engineers who are to pass on the foundation, just what the formation is foot by foot.

TEST WELCOMED.

Weakness of foundations for the dry docks is the only objection thus far raised by opponents of the Alameda naval base, and the coming tests of the local site and also of Hunters Point is welcomed by advocates of the site south of the Alameda mole.

It shows that the Navy Department is seriously considering Alameda and that a favorable report by the engineers will go far toward assuring the naval base for this city.

City Engineer Hickok is confident that the navy men will find no vulnerable spots in the proposed dry dock site. He and his men have been working the ground and are certain that the site is an ideal one.

DREDGING OF QUAY WALL IS ORDERED

Provision for the dredging of the quay wall along the inner harbor between Clay and Market streets, necessary to afford sufficient depth for the docking of larger type of vessels was made by the city council this morning, when measures were passed calling for the work by private contract.

Action by the council followed a statement from Commissioner Soderberg calling attention to the fact that the portion of the inner harbor in question provides only ten feet clearance for vessels, which are nearly left high and dry, and that some steps must be taken to accommodate the great amount of shipping expected in the harbor.

The work cannot be done by the municipal dredger, Soderberg said, because of the fact that it is needed for the present dredging work along the western waterfront and the city funds contain sufficient money for the work under contract, the sum of $242,000 having been appropriated for the year and only $117,000 having been spent by April 1.

The resolution adopting specifications for the improvement and calling for bids requires 100,000 yards of dredging at a cost, according to the commissioner, of 30 cents a cubic yard, bringing the cost of the work to $30,000.

WILL AID WORK OF SALVATION ARMY

Callahan of Livermore, J. J. Rosborough, Judge William H. Donahue, Justice W. J. Gannon of San Leandro and William F. Morrison of Berkeley.

Speakers: Judge Donahue, Fred Hunter, J. J. Rosborough, F. B. McCallum and L. R. Weinmann.

Among the subjects of investigation with which the body will concern itself are poverty, unemployment, juvenile delinquencies, missing persons, illegitimacy, maternity hospitals, prison work, pauperism, Americanization, children's homes and soldiers' and sailors' welfare.

Too Many Cows in Yard, Say Neighbors

Investigation was started today by Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Morse of conditions at the premises of Miss C. L. Powers, at the junction of Thirty-ninth avenue, Harborview and Patterson street, where 15 cows are reported kept. The neighbors ask for abatement of an alleged nuisance.

MUFFITT IS ORDERED TO FACE JURY

NEW YORK, April 2.—William H. Moffitt, a real estate operator, charged with grand larceny, will be brought to trial as soon as possible, according to Theodore L. Waugh, assistant district attorney.

Moffitt, who is at liberty on bail, planned to return to California, where he said he could earn $100,000 in a year and repay all his creditors.

Waugh's determination was said to have resulted from information that Moffitt formed a business partnership with his stenographer, Pearl Carpen. A certified copy of the agreement, obtained in Santa Barbara, January 3, 1919, and filed in Seattle April 7, has been received by Waugh. Under this agreement, signed by W. J. Marbin, one of Moffitt's aliases, Miss Carpen would receive half of any of his earnings.

Smash; Boy Hurt by Truck

Charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, James Sutherland, a shipwright, residing at 1227 Burnett street, Berkeley, was arrested last night in Albany by Marshal John Glavinovich. He will appear for his preliminary hearing on Monday before Judge John H. Paul.

Alfred Anderson, a 14-year-old schoolboy, residing with his parents at 2315 Ninth street, is suffering lacerations and bruises which he sustained last night when his bicycle collided with a motor truck at Paul street and San Pablo avenue. He was taken to the receiving hospital by J. H. Cope of 149 Richmond avenue, Richmond.

Dr. A. F. Werner, 2281 East Twentieth street, driver of an automobile which collided with a motorcycle driven by Alfred Anderson Wednesday afternoon, reported to the police last night that his light machine had been overturned by the collision and that his wife, who was in the car with him, had been thrown out and severely injured. He denied that he had failed to make the proper signal at Sixteenth avenue and East Twelfth street, where the accident occurred.

WOMAN BREAKS RIB

Mrs. Werner was taken to her home in another car. She sustained a broken rib and many painful bruises. The top was torn from the automobile when it turned over, according to Werner's report to the police.

Although Inspector George Powers of the Oakland police department testified before a jury that William J. Llewellyn was still slightly under the influence of intoxicants when he interviewed him in the city jail on the morning following his arrest on the night of December 31, 1918, a jury in Department No. 3 of the superior court late yesterday found Llewellyn not guilty of the charge of driving his automobile while under the influence of liquor. It took the jury only ten minutes to deliberate and return its verdict.

During the trial Llewellyn admitted having taken a few drinks just prior to his arrest and other witnesses testified that he had been drinking. He was defended by Attorney Frank Carr. Deputy District Attorney Wade Snook conducted the prosecution.

R. J. Pringle must pay $117.85 damages to A. S. Pencovic, as the result of an automobile collision at Tenth and Center streets in Oakland last February. Pencovic, whose car was jammed in the collision, testified before Judge Harry W. Pulcifer yesterday afternoon that Pringle lost control of his machine when he tried to flit with a girl perched on the railing of a nearby porch.

STUES FOR $10,000

For injuries which, he claims, were sustained when an automobile driven by Adam Smith ran him down at Congress and High streets in Oakland, on July 27, Ben Johnson, a railroad brakeman, has entered a claim for $10,267 damages in the Alameda county superior court in the form of a civil action. Johnson claims the machine which ran him down was driven at an excessive rate of speed.

Blaming the accident in which he sustained injuries at Twelfth street and East Twenty-third avenue on October 4, 1919, to the careless driving of J. R. Perry, Peter Villincino, an employee of the California Cotton Mills in Oakland, has started suit to recover $596.40 damages. Mrs. I. C. Ross, owner of the machine driven by Perry, is named as the defendant in the suit. Villincino was riding a bicycle at the time of the accident.

Two automobiles were badly damaged in a collision last night at East Fourteenth street and Thirty-fifth avenue when machines driven by George Simons, 1914 Seventy-third avenue, and Bert Hura, 1314 Fruitvale avenue, crashed together. The drivers were uninjured.

STEER ERRATIC COURSE

Two men were arrested late last night by Inspectors William Smith and George Powers after the officers had observed them steering a car erratically in a high powered machine on East Fourteenth street. The police officers intercepted the car and asked the driver to explain the count of themselves, which they were unable to do in a satisfactory way.

When they were searched at the Central police station last night, a loaded revolver was found on one of the men, who gave his name to the police as Bert Williams. The other man told the police his name was William Howard. They are held for investigation. Neither of them had an operator's license.

SPEEDERS ARE SENTENCED.

Judge John H. Paul of Albany meted out sentences of 24 hours each in the county jail this morning to C. Gata, a chauffeur, residing at 676 Sixth street, Oakland, and to O. E. Stein, an automobile salesman of San Francisco. Both were convicted of exceeding the speed laws in Albany.

Although a plain clothes man of the San Francisco police department was with Stein when he was arrested, driving his car 33 miles an hour, the fact that the policeman exhibited his star at the time of Stein's arrest and maintained that Stein had a right to exceed the speed limit when an officer of the law was riding in the car with him, it did not affect Judge Paul's decision.

"No matter if it was the chief of police himself riding with you," said Judge Paul, "you had no right to violate the traffic laws. I therefore sentence you to serve 24 hours in the county jail as punishment."

Gata was found guilty of driving his machine 32 miles an hour through Albany.

Nurse's Classmates Act As Pallbearers

Six nurses, members of the 1912 class at Providence hospital, acted as honorary pallbearers this afternoon at funeral services for one of their classmates, Miss Christina Bertelsen. The services were held from 10 to 11 o'clock at the Telephone parlors on Telegraph avenue. Miss Bertelsen, daughter of Mrs. M. Bertelsen, 591 Sixty-second avenue, died Tuesday after a short illness.

Her classmates, who acted as honorary pallbearers, were: Misses Sylvia Camineta, Mary Hopkins, Ann Fogarty, Rose Gallagher, Rose Losler and Margaret Harrington.

COLUMBIAN GIVEN COMMAND

It has been announced by Adjutant General J. J. Borra that Colonel Ralph Fanout, commander of the 143d field artillery in France, will command the two new batteries of National Guard field artillery now being organized in Oakland. Battery B will be commanded by J. H. Fahy and Battery E by A. G. Wadell, while headquarters company will be commanded by H. G. Knudsen.

With headquarters established at Thirteenth and Harrison streets the work of recruiting for the new organizations is well under way. Future promotions will be made by examination, which will be open to both non-commissioned officers and enlisted men.

An effort is now being made to enlist as many men of the original 143d field artillery as possible before the new batteries are recruited to full peace strength. It is pointed out that men who have seen service and those who train with the National Guard in peace time are the men to receive the first promotions in the field.

An effort will also be made in the near future to secure at least two companies of infantry for Oakland. Preparations are under way to secure a rifle range for the use of the new organizations and rifle practice will be held at least once a month.

This Husky Chap Admits It, and Twice a Year Takes Pepto-Mangan, Red Blood Builder

He is tall (almost six feet), weighs 185, plays golf, works his own garden, and is stronger than most men. He is the picture of health, looks as vigorous as a football player.

But he is not aemic, gets tired too easily, is inclined to constipation, is more nervous than a normal man should be, and is subject to disfiguring pimples.

Added, "Whenever I have the sense or the memory to take two or three bottles of Gude's Pepto-Mangan in the late fall and early spring, I am as right as a trig. The trouble is I forget. If I hired a doctor only to remind me to take Pepto-Mangan twice a year, it would be worth hundreds of dollars to me."

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolutely dependable red-blood builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak, and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. ## RAIL WAGE CASE GOES TO WILSON

In a letter to the President, B. M. Jewell, chairman of the railroad commission, which constitutes the labor party on the railroad wage board, said he regretted very much "to advise you of our failure to obtain any beneficial results from these conferences."

The employees, Mr. Jewell said, were keenly disappointed at the position taken by the railroad executives' committee, which announced last night a deadlock and the withdrawal of the railroad members from the conference.

Jewell did not ask the President to lay the wage controversy before the railroad labor board, which is to be nominated by the President as provided in the transportation act and on which the public will have representation.

Attached to Jewell's letter was correspondence setting forth the attitude of the men and the executive committee. E. F. White, for the railroad executives, wrote that the executives did not believe Congress contemplated a settlement involving so great an addition to transportation costs without the public being represented in the conference.

Replying to this letter, Jewell said he believed the reason given by the managers for terminating the negotiations was "not in accord with our understanding of the law."

Keillogg's Krumbles

NUMBER THREE

By H. M. C. M.

Food Expert, N. Y. Globe

The human scrap heap is piling higher because man gives more care to his machines than to his body. He won't stand for aches, pains, and aches when he can get a car, but the driver's own "insides" may have more aches and pains than the world ever hears of except in the annual increase of Bright's disease, heart disease, nerve disorders, and cancer.

Oil, gas, water and grease deficiencies cause the trouble that he guards against. Food deficiencies don't bother him. Yet there is actually more scientific information on the subject with respect to his own health than the kind that keeps his auto in running order.

It was a food deficiency disease that drove the German raider, Kronprinz Wilhelm, from the seas not the lack of his food. The Germans could keep the ship in running order, but they couldn't keep her crew on their feet.

They had food plenty of the wrong kind—lots of white bread and sugar, butter, meat and canned vegetables. Their food had been robbed by sifting and boiling. The meat did not supply the boiled parts. They were missing.

The crew succumbed to the deficiency and barely made port at Newport News.

When the whole grain parts were put back into their diet they recovered and the recovery was too late to put them back in the fight. They had been interned in the interval.

Hundreds of thousands of Americans are interning themselves every day with refined foods.

On the wholesale scale they permit the debasement and impoverishment of their cereals and then blame High Heaven for the infirmities of their own making. The tragedy is reflected in the mortality statistics that no one heeds. When will it end?

Only when men come out with their eyes! White breakfast foods may look nice, but the stomach can't see and the eyes don't help it to take out of foods the vitality that has already been removed. The force of the thing is grim, too grim for tolerance.

This is my reason for endorsing over any food that has sense enough to keep the richness it inherits from the ground instead of sifting them into the waste heap of rejected food chemicals that lead to the waste heap of physical decay. Kellogg's Krumbles are a step forward.

It would be well for humanity to eat them for the richness it inherits from the ground instead of sifting them into the waste heap of rejected food chemicals that lead to the waste heap of physical decay. Kellogg's Krumbles are a step forward.

Uniform Coffee

"Always Tastes the Same in the Cup"

It's a Vital Matter, Madam

—To the Men

Don't blame men too much if they scold when the coffee isn't right. It's "half the breakfast" to most men, and breakfast is their most important meal.

Don't blame yourself either, and don't let them blame you if the coffee varies in flavor. It's a brand's fault, not yours, if you keep the pot clean and make the coffee every day alike.

You need a brand that's always uniform—one that is as regular in its flavor as you are in your method—one that will keep faith with you so you can have coffee 365 days in the year with the same taste in every cup. That brand is "Folger's Golden Gate."

It's a never-changing brand.

Some brands vary constantly because the world's best raw coffees do. To get the same flavor daily requires expert roasting, blending and expert tasting to keep to a definite flavor-standard.

We employ men with the skill of artistry. We match every lot so it is like every other. The can you buy now and the one a year from now will be exactly alike.

Some brands will bring you twenty different flavors in twenty cans. So you can't make good coffee though you treat it every day the same if it doesn't treat you the same.

Yes she always has good Coffee at her dinners

Try "Folger's Golden Gate" for after-dinner coffee. See how this delicious brand ends coffee-making troubles.

Expect It To Be Different—and Better

Expect this coffee to be different, for it is different, and better. You have never tasted finer coffee—that we know.

It is smooth, rich and full-flavored. And it's a non-acid coffee, so you can make it "strong" without losing its healthful effect.

Ask your grocer to send you a trial can today. Learn what a changeless brand of coffee means.

Berkeley Bungalow $3250

For business reasons I am compelled to live in Portland and have been renting this bungalow for 2 years to a fine tenant who is now also leaving. They tell me I could spend $150 or $200 in painting and repairs, and the place is better than the place. I don't want to bother with these details and would rather sell for $3250 and get out of debt. Now don't expect to get a mansion, but if you are handy with a spade and a shovel, you can make it a wonderful place. Located at 1737 Acton st. 1 blk. from Key Route, 1 blk. from S. P. electric, not far from University ave. This place has only 4 rooms but more can be easily added at small expense. It is of concrete and rustic with hardwood floors and modern in every particular; the lot is extra large and the neighborhood exceedingly desirable. I must have at least $1750 cash down, the balance can remain at 7%. Will be open tomorrow from 2 to 5 p. m. Go to University ave. and Acton north on Acton to 1737 Acton; ask for Mr. E. E. Embury, 1737 Acton, phone 1737. Lakeside 1600, bet. 9 and 11 a. m.

Federation Opposes
Oriental Legislation

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Opposition to proposals for legislation prohibiting the purchase or leasing of property by Japanese for themselves or for their American-born children is contained in a statement issued by the San Francisco Bay Federation of Churches, with a membership of ministers and laymen of the four counties bordering the bay. Restrictions of immigration as they exist now, the association approves. Fred Parr, president of the Parr-McCormick Steamship Company and the Parr Terminal Company, is president of the organization.

LISBON STRIKE SETTLED. LISBON, Portugal, April 2.—The strike of postal and telegraph employees which began early in March has been settled.

Health Officers to Hear John Collier

John Collier of New York will be the speaker at the open meeting of the board of governors of the Alameda County Public Health Center Thursday evening. The conference will be held in the temporary headquarters, Grove and Thirty-first streets. "How the District Center Operates for Citizenship" will be Collier's subject.

CAMPAIGN FOR SAFETY
UNDER WAY

Oakland's "Safety First" campaign, as part of a nation-wide movement to reduce accidents, opened yesterday.

A public meeting is to be held in the T. and D. motion picture theater on April 10, and during the period from April 8 to April 15 a big meeting will be held by the Oakland Rotary club. On April 9 the Oakland Lodge of Moose will hold a similar meeting.

The streets stunts were started Wednesday with a "walk right" campaign by the Boy Scouts under the direction of the traffic division of the police department. The Scout "clean-up" campaign will be held Saturday.

FIRE DEPARTMENT DRILL

The fire department will hold a competitive fire drill in the city hall plaza on April 15, and the other street stunts include safety parades under the direction of the Alameda County Automobile Trades Association during the noon hour.

The publicity campaign will include the showing of fire and accident prevention slides in theaters, a demonstration by a safety car of the Key Route on a spur track at Fourteenth and Webster streets and street car warning posters. In addition, educational posters are being distributed to the public conveying warning against fires and accidents. The communication issued by the Commissioner of Safety is in part:

"I ask every man and woman who drives an automobile or motorcycle to pay careful attention to all safety first rules of the road. For two weeks the police will call even the minutest infraction to the attention of the motorist, giving instruction and sounding warning. At the end of the safety observance period I shall instruct the chief of police to have the officers show no further leniency as regards infractions of the ordinances pertaining to automobiles."

SPEEDING MUST STOP

"Death and injury to men, women and children of Oakland because of speed fiends and reckless drivers shall not continue if strict law enforcement counts for anything. Tomorrow THE TRIBUNE will print a picture of the young lady who will perform a "slide for life" down a rope to the sidewalk from the top of the First National Bank building. The girl daredevil will perform this stunt in conjunction with the competitive fire drill which will be held on April 15 between several teams of Oakland firemen."

UPHOLSTERERS WANTED.

Considerable difficulty has been experienced in obtaining qualified upholsterers for employment at the Mare Island navy yard. The labor board at Mare Island has sent out a communication, requesting that all upholsterers qualified for this position communicate with the District Office Labor Board, Grant Building, San Francisco.

Committee of Citizens
Announces Attitude in Proposed Recall Action

A "declaration of principles" in connection with the proposed recall action against Commissioners Frederick Soderberg, F. F. Morse and W. H. Edwards was issued this morning by L. C. Fraser, chairman of the "temporary citizens' committee," through Preston L. Higgins. It reads as follows:

A DECLARATION
The undersigned citizens and taxpayers of Oakland, assembled for a free discussion of intolerable local affairs, "hold these truths to be self-evident," and request our fellow citizens to join in service to our city:

That there is a limit to the political bickering which sacrifices the city's advancement for a mess of personal verbiage.
That beyond the point where common sense guides our city officials there comes a time for the rank and file of our citizenry to join hands for a decent and sane government of our city.

WOULD BAR FACTIONSHIP
That a combination of city commissioners has inaugurated a campaign to break down constructive programs and sacrifice Oakland's future for their own political ends.

That Oakland's manufacturing and commercial development depends upon a harmonious business-like administration with no place for childish squabbles which brand Oakland as a joke the country over.

That the time for action by the people has arrived.
That the work to be done constitutes a non-partisan civic duty with no spirit of revenge or promise of reward.
That the recall of an inefficient public servant is a right which the people hold on a level with their right to elect officials at regular elections.

That past abuses of the recall cannot be justly applied against the principle of removing officials whose continuance in office bears down directly upon the welfare of the city.

PESSIMISM SCORED
That the word "can't" and other pessimistic talk is the propaganda of selfish official incompetence which we seek to reform or eliminate.

That to those who call the recall vicious and expensive, we ask them to consider this question: Can it be one part as vicious and expensive as these officials have been?

That the city government belongs to the people and the duty of making it clean rests upon us all alike.

People of Oakland, this is your business. This movement, of which the recall is merely a first step, belongs to no one man or set of men, neither shall it be used for advancing the interests of any man or set of men. Are we to longer endure the political harangue which is ruining Oakland's reputation and killing our chances for business progress? It is for you to decide.

Sign to the Temporary Citizens' Committee—L. C. Fraser, chairman; George Sheldon, Herman Johnson, Clinton Dodge, Clifton Brooks, Manuel Goldwater, Major W. D. Barnes, W. F. Scott, J. P. Potter, W. E. Whalin, J. J. Mul-larky, E. L. Perry and F. A. Rit-tigstein.

Writers Organize
Martin Eden Club

The Martin Eden club was organized last night at the residence of C. W. Kendall, 1410 Jackson street, with a membership roll composed of men engaged in newspaper and magazine work, dramatists, verse and scenario writers. Three rejection slips and the fact that the man has not attained to literary recognition are the qualifications for membership. Plans are under way to establish clubrooms near Lake Merritt. The new literary society is called after Jack London's famous book.

Professor Leonard D. Bacon of the University of California and Harry Golden were speakers last night.

Flowers Sought for Arroyo Sanitarium

Easter greetings in flowers are asked for the patients at the Arroyo Sanitarium, the county tuberculosis hospital, near Livermore. To give each of the 125 men and women a floral souvenir on Sunday the County Hospital Association is asking for donations of cut flowers. A special program will be given at the Sanitarium on Easter afternoon under the direction of the association. The sponsors will leave Oakland at 1 o'clock. Gifts may be left at THE TRIBUNE BUILDING, 1225 Broadway and Franklin streets, Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning.

Card Party Planned for Mills Campaign

The Mills College Endowment Fund will be swelled by means of a card party which will be given at the residence of Miss Sarah Davis 2547 Channing way, Berkeley, Thursday, April 15. Miss Davis is chairman of the Berkeley committee on social activities whose membership includes Miss Elva King, Mrs. Lena Walters, Mrs. Charles W. Camm. Tables may be reserved from any member of the committee.

Vaudiville numbers will vary the benefit T. & D. theater party program on the afternoon and evening of April 15 which is arranged to increase the endowment fund.

ILL-TIMED JOKE ON APRIL FIRST
LEADS TO JAIL

Speaking of unpopular things, it would be hard to find anything more unpopular than April fool jokes and jokesters in the estimation of Amos McKeand.

And McKeand has a reason for his wrath. He spent last night in a cell in the city prison as the result of an April fool day joke. But it is not considered a joke by McKeand.

He is an employee in the Southern Pacific roundhouse. Last night when about to go home he found that some merry jokester had replaced the front wheel of his motorcycle with a wheel from a baby carriage. He suspected R. W. Moore, another employee, and retaliated by removing the generator from the machine of Moore.

While engaged in doing this, he was arrested by Patrolman P. A. Pierce. Protest and explanation were useless; he was taken to jail. Moore appeared in Judge Mortimer Smith's police court this morning.

"I'm off of practical jokes forever," said McKeand.

REGISTRATION TO END IN COUNTY
SATURDAY NIGHT

Tomorrow evening at 9:30 o'clock will be the last opportunity the voters will have to register if they desire to participate in the presidential primaries on May 4. The county clerk's office will be kept open until 9:30 p. m. in order to give every one an opportunity to register. The registration is reported to be heavy throughout the city.

A new register is being compiled which necessitates that everyone must register this year. Registrations of last year are not counted.

GRAND LARCENY CHARGED. Richard Hoppe, who was arrested in San Francisco last night, appeared before Police Judge George Samuels this morning to face a grand larceny charge. He is also alleged to have passed a bad check on the Central National Bank for $322.15. The case was continued until April 13 for examination.

One grain of strychnine can be tasted in 600,000 grains of water.
